The OB/GYN Group of Austin

Obstetrician and Gynecologist Dr. Jason L. Gooch has become a partner in The OB/GYN Group of Austin.

Austin TX – June 9, 2011 – The OB/GYN Group of Austin is proud to announce that Dr. Jason Gooch has recently become a partner after practicing with our group since July of 2006.

Dr. Patrick D. Nunnally, president of The OB/GYN Group of Austin since 1995, explains, “We are thrilled to have Dr. Gooch as a partner in the OB/GYN Group of Austin. He is an outstanding board certified physician, is dedicated to serving our patients with great expertise and a sincere heart, and is vital steward of our health-care goals. He is clearly a valuable asset to our long-standing Austin women’s health practice. On behalf of our staff and our patients, I’m happy to wish him all the best as he continues to serve and contribute in his stellar fashion.”

Dr. Gooch comments, “I was pleased to learn on May 4th that I had been made a partner of the OB/GYN Group of Austin, and to then celebrate this event with the physicians, staff and my family. This practice has a wonderful reputation throughout Austin and beyond, and I will strive to provide the expertise and leadership in women’s health that is so vital to our entire community.”

About The OB/GYN Group of Austin

The OB/GYN Group of Austin, A Care Center of Central Texas OB/GYN Associates was established in 1965 under the name of Drs. Des Rosiers and Werneke Associates. The name was changed in September of 2008 to reflect its growing clientele and longtime service to Austin women. Today it has a staff of eight renowned, board-certified OB/GYN physicians, a nurse practitioner, a physician’s assistant, and skilled office staff. The group is committed to providing Austin women with premier expertise in obstetrics and gynecology, including pregnancy care and management as well as routine wellness exams. This long established group practice offers the most advanced, state-of-the-art technology, with many services available in-office, including lab work, bone density testing and digital mammography. The group has recently merged with four other OB/GYN offices in the Austin area in an effort to give more women access to expert care. For more information, visit www.obgyngroupofaustin.com.
